Artist Dwayne Wilcox to Host Free Ledger Art Workshop

Rapid City, S.D. – Jan. 8, 2010 – When school is out on Monday, Jan. 18, children 10 years and older are invited to learn about ledger art at the Rapid City Public Libraries. Award-winning artist, Dwayne Wilcox, will be at the downtown library from 9:30 to 11 a.m. and the north library from 1 to 2:30 p.m. to teach children about ledger art and help them create their own ledger art.

Ledger art was created by Native American Artists in the 1860's when traditional art materials became scarce. Wilcox, who was raised on Pine Ridge reservation, has numerous awards and exhibits to his credit. You can check out his art online at www.doghatstudio.com.

The Rapid City Public Library has served the Rapid City area since 1879, and now has two locations, the downtown library at 610 Quincy Street and the north library within General Beadle Elementary School at 10 Van Buren St. Both offer print and electronic resources for adults, young adults and children as well as computers and Internet access and a variety of programs and events. In March 2008, USA Today named the Rapid City Public Library's downtown library as one of the nation's 10 greatest places to "Find a Nook and Read a Book."
