All a Buzz for Bees at the Library's January Lunch and Learn

Rapid City, S.D. – Jan. 11, 2010 – Bees will be the focus of the Lunch & Learn program on Wednesday, Jan. 20 from noon to 1 p.m. at the downtown Rapid City Public Library. Jerry Owens, a local beekeeper, will discuss what it takes to be a beekeeper and how his concern for the future of bees inspired him to start a new organization, Wannabe a Beekeeper. Owens will also talk about the trouble bees are in throughout the world.

Lunch is provided compliments of the Friends of the Library organization. Anyone who would like lunch should RSVP to the library by noon on Monday, Jan. 18 by calling 394-4171.

The Rapid City Public Library has served the Rapid City area since 1879, and now has two locations, the downtown library at 610 Quincy Street and the north library within General Beadle Elementary School at 10 Van Buren St. Both offer print and electronic resources for adults, young adults and children as well as computers and Internet access and a variety of programs and events. In March 2008, USA Today named the Rapid City Public Library's downtown library as one of the nation's 10 greatest places to "Find a Nook and Read a Book."
