Pizza and Pages Teen Book Discussion Group to Meet

Rapid City, S.D. – March 9, 2010 – Teens who love to read now have a new outlet to share their thoughts on different books. The high school Pizza and Pages teen book discussion group will hold their inaugural meeting on Friday, March 19 at 6:30 p.m. at the downtown Rapid City Public Library located at 610 Quincy St.

Teens in grades 9-12 are invited to discuss the book Hunger Games by Suzanne Collins. Hunger Games follows the story of 16-year-old Katniss who volunteers to participate in the Hunger Games, a brutal and terrifying fight to the death televised for all to see, in place of her little sister. Pizza and drinks will be provided.

###

The Rapid City Public Library has served the Rapid City area since 1879, and now has two locations, the downtown library at 610 Quincy Street and the north library within General Beadle Elementary School at 10 Van Buren St. Both offer print and electronic resources for adults, young adults and children as well as computers and Internet access and a variety of programs and events. In March 2008, USA Today named the Rapid City Public Library's downtown library as one of the nation's 10 greatest places to "Find a Nook and Read a Book."
